Event Report: Departmental Orientation 2025

Department of Political Science

Date: 4th August 2025

On 4th August, the Department of Political Science organized its Orientation Programme to warmly welcome the freshers into the department. The session began with a presentation by the Political Science Students' Association (PSSA), which not only introduced the new students to the activities, initiatives, and vision of the association but also gave them an overview of the faculty profiles, highlighting the academic strengths and diverse research areas of the professors. This was followed by an informative discussion on the National Education Policy (NEP) and the objectives of the department, through which the students were acquainted with the department's commitment to promoting critical thinking, interdisciplinary learning, and holistic growth. The orientation also included a brief yet engaging interaction with the professors and the seniors, creating an atmosphere of openness and camaraderie where freshers could share their thoughts, clarify doubts, and connect with the larger departmental community. Overall, the programme proved to be a meaningful and enriching introduction to the culture, ethos, and academic environment of the department, setting a positive tone for the journey ahead.
