Event Report- Pravaah Lecture Series on the Topic: 'Politics, Ethic and Spirituality and their role in shaping alternative planetary futures'

Event Summary

Praavah Lecture Series

Date: 21st August 2025

Venue: Room no-13, Sri Venkateswara College

The Department of Political Science, Sri Venkateswara College, organized a thought-provoking lecture under the Pravaah Lecture Series on 21st August 2025. The lecture was delivered by Prof. Ananta Kumar Giri, Former Professor at the Madras Institute of Development Studies, Chennai, on the theme "Politics, Ethics, and Spirituality and their Role in Shaping Alternative Planetary Futures." Prof. Giri's presentation explored how the crises of our times—COVID-19, climate change, and inequalities of globalization—necessitate new ways of imagining politics and society. Drawing from thinkers such as Michel Foucault, Veena Das, Habermas, Greta Thunberg, and Sri Aurobindo, he emphasized the importance of moving beyond a politics of mere power towards one rooted in justice, solidarity, and spiritual responsibility.

The lecture highlighted how ethics and spirituality are not abstract concerns but practical resources for rethinking governance, development, and civic life. Themes such as the dignity of labor, ecological interdependence, cultural trauma, and global solidarity were linked to the search for alternative planetary futures. Prof. Giri stressed that the challenges of our age require both critical reflection and spiritual renewal, urging students to reimagine politics as a practice of compassion, dialogue, and transformative responsibility.

The session concluded with an engaging Q&A, where students and faculty reflected on how politics, ethics, and spirituality can together help us transcend the "pathology of the new normal" and work towards a civilization of dignity, beauty, and justice
