SUMMARY

The Department Farewell Ceremony 2025–26 was organized for the outgoing third-year students by the first-year and second-year students of the department with great enthusiasm and teamwork. The event was conducted in Room 322 and became a memorable occasion for both juniors and seniors. Preparations for the farewell began at around 1:00 PM with the decoration of the venue. Students worked together to decorate the room beautifully and create a warm and welcoming atmosphere for the faculty members and seniors. The dedication and coordination of the volunteers were clearly visible in the final arrangements of the venue.

The event officially started at 2:30 PM with the welcoming of the faculty members followed by the welcoming of the third-year students. After everyone settled down, the program moved ahead with light-hearted and entertaining anchoring by Pushkar and Pihu from the first year. Their cheerful interaction with the audience kept the environment lively and enjoyable throughout the event.

Refreshments and snacks were then served to all faculty members and students. This was followed by several cultural performances by the first-year and second-year students, including dance and singing performances. The performances showcased the talent, confidence, and enthusiasm of the students and added excitement to the farewell celebration.

During the event, respected Teacher-in-Charge Dr. Sunita Jain addressed the students and shared a few heartfelt words for the outgoing batch. Deepika Bhardwaj, the President of the student council and Samuel Matthews, the Secretary, also expressed their gratitude and appreciation towards everyone involved in organizing the farewell.

Fun competitions were also organized to select Mr. Farewell and Ms. Farewell. A push-up competition was held for the boys and a dance competition for the girls. Ishaan Negi was declared Mr. Farewell, while Vartika Jawla was declared Ms. Farewell.

The event concluded with the distribution of mementos by the faculty members to the third-year students. The mementos included photo frames containing a group photograph of the outgoing batch. Group photographs were then taken, followed by lunch in the canteen area. The farewell ended on a joyful and emotional note, creating lasting memories for everyone present.
