Report - Orientation of Enactus SVC

18th August, 2026

Enactus SVC held its annual orientation for the 2026-27 academic year on August 18, 2026, at the Seminar Hall. The event welcomed all students interested in learning about Enactus SVC and participating in social entrepreneurship and community development initiatives.

We extend our sincere thanks to Respected Principal Sir, Prof. Vajala Ravi and our convenors, Dr. Lakshay Malhotra and Dr. Manoj Thakur for their invaluable support in making this event possible. The event commenced at 11:45 A.M. and wrapped at 1:00 P.M., familiarising participants with the idea of social entrepreneurship.

The primary objectives of the orientation were as follows:

Introduction to Enactus SVC: The event provided a comprehensive overview of Enactus SVC's mission and its pivotal role in driving positive societal change.

Participants getting introduced to Enactus SVC.

Encouraging Participation: Attendees, regardless of their academic year, were encouraged to actively engage in Enactus SVC's projects and initiatives.

Encouraging participation by a crowd engagement activity.

Showcasing Opportunities: Attendees were informed of the diverse opportunities offered by Enactus SVC for developing skills, cultivating leadership abilities, and making a positive impact on the community.

Participants being introduced to various departments and projects at Enactus.

Fostering a Sense of Community: The orientation aimed to cultivate a strong sense of community among all individuals interested in the realms of social entrepreneurship and community development.

The team explains how they tackle the problems while fostering the sense of social entrepreneurship.

The orientation methodology included presentations, firsthand accounts from existing members, project demonstrations, a dynamic Q&A segment, opportunities for networking, and sign-ups for interested participants.

The event yielded positive outcomes, including heightened awareness, increased motivation for participation, enhanced community spirit, and a substantial number of registrations from both new and returning students.

Enactus SVC looks forward to welcoming an energetic and diverse cohort of individuals who will spearhead innovative initiatives and make a meaningful impact on society throughout the 2026-27 academic year.
